In this connection, a Writ Petition (C ) 14972/2022 was filed by M/s ASHA & ORS. in the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi at New Delhi. The matter came up for hearing on 28.10.22 After having heard counsels for the parties and perused the record, the Hon'ble High Court has made following orders:-

"Having heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record, I find no reason to interdict the selection process at this belated stage, especially by taking into account the fact that it has been the consistent case of the respondent that, though the shortlisting for interview was done on the basis of self-declaration by the candidates, they were allowed to participate in the interview only after due verification of their documents. Furthermore, any restraint on the joining of the selected candidates at this stage, will cause grave and irreparable loss not only to those candidates who are not before the Court, but also to the students of the respondent university. The balance of convince is, therefore, not in the favour of the petitioner. It is however directed that the appointments made to the post of Assistant Professor pursuant to the advertisement dated 10.12.2021, will remain subject to the outcome of the present petition".

The above is submitted for information of all the selected candidates.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
