Order

A day before Diwali, some of the student were reported to have indulged in violence against others group of students. The matter was still under investigation by the University Authorities.

Today, 04/11/2019 during 3.30pm it was found that there was massive scuffle and physical aggression between two groups of students seemingly the same group of students, who were involved in scuffle a day before Diwali i.e on 24/10/2019 in University premises.

The University takes very serious note of such kind of group fights and scuffles between group of students. Such behavior is bad for the student concerned as well as bad for the peaceful ambience of the University. All the students are advised to desist from any such activity which tantamount to indiscipline and acts prejudicial to the peace and harmony in the University premises.

The whole issue of scuffle between two groups of students are being examined by the University to fix the responsibility and take appropriate action. In this context ,the following are directed before the proctorial board/Board of Discipline 05/11/2019 at 4.00 pm:-
