NSS

The National Social Service Scheme is a Central Sector Scheme of the Government of India, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. The motto of the Scheme is, "NOT ME BUT YOU". It was launched in 1969 on the event of Mahatma Gandhi's centenary. The aim of the service is to provide students with hands on experience in delivering community service. It is a voluntary service of students across Universities and schools. NSS GGSIPU is divided into a number of NSS units, each of which strives to develop a more vibrant community through events and volunteer assignments that can create a more inclusive society. In pursuance of the same, the NSS Cell has come up with Suraina.

GGSIPIU

Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPIU), a UGC recognized University is the first University established in 1998 by Govt. of NCT of Delhi under the provisions of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University Act, 1998 read with its Amendment in 1999. ABOUT US

NSS GGSIPU believes in the power of art to bring about an ocean of change. It believes in its power to make society more accepting by giving voice to each and everyone, the voice of expression it believes is the greatest weapon. So to provide a stage to all the visionaries out there, NSS GGSIPU is here with a small effort with the aim to highlight the talent and ideas that can bring a change. We will be hosting a wide range of events, Suraina will create awareness about the adversity faced by various groups of people, it will start a conversation and pick up issues that matter for people who matter. Someone who said, "Ignorance is bliss", was definitely mistaken. We believe that ignorance is the least of bliss and most of all evil. Hence to break the streak of ignorance and hold accountable each other to dust the layer of ill, we bring to you, Suraina 2.0

A LOOK BACK

Before going into the second edition of our event, it is important that we reminisce the memories of Suraina 1.0. Not just to acknowledge the efforts of the past but also to look at how far we've come and the distance we are yet to cover. Suraina 1.0 spread over 14 days and was commemorated to celebrate the 151st birth anniversary of the Father of our Nation, Mahatma Gandhi and the 116th birth anniversary of the Man of Peace, Lal Bahadur Shastri. To pay tribute to the global heroes, we conducted a Mega Event consisting of 6 competitions :-

Story Writing; Waste to Wonder; Monologue; Gandhi 2020; Poster Making & Treasure Hunt.

The events witnessed an overwhelming response from only the student fraternity but people from all stratas of society. Registered participants in the event were as young as 12 years old to as old as 32 years old. We were even able to gain heartwarming support of over 40000 people through our social media pages and even if it helped a section of this group to think for few moments to find solutions to various problems in the society or look into the lives of our great ideals it means that the event was a huge success!

Appreciating the success of our first edition, here we present to you Suraina 2.0. Looking forward to yet another year of hope, possibilities, compassion and service to the nation.

MALHAAR

'The art of people is a true mirror to their minds'- Jawaharlal Nehru.

Is art a personal expression or public? How have artists used their bodies as vessels for expressing social and political views while presenting intriguing and thought provoking contemporary art? Performance art, a form of ephemeral art, that incorporates and integrates a range of mediums, attempts to give all these answers.

At the Malhaar, we bring diverse forms of competitions including Indian dance, western dance, singing, instrumental and yoga.

Art is one of the most creative forms of expression. Sometimes paintings, illustrations, drawings etc., can convey what words cannot. The event is vital for the overall growth of one's personnel. The Bold Brush will bring out the ideas of the fellow participants and arouse in them a feeling of community service which will lead to their contribution towards nationalism. Art provides means to express the imagination in nongrammatic ways.
