

INAUGURATION OF CENTRE FOR INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM AND TECHNOLOGY INNOVATION (CIKSTI)

25 SEPTEMBER 2025

New Delhi, September 25, 2025

Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU) inaugurated the Centre for Indian Knowledge System and Technology Innovation (CIKSTI) at the newly established CIKSTI Room in the University Library.

The Centre has been initiated under the leadership of Padmashri Prof. Mahesh Verma, Vice-Chancellor, and Prof. Saroj Sharma, Dean, University School of Education. It aims to integrate India's rich traditional wisdom with cutting-edge technology, aligning with the vision of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.

The inaugural event featured a cultural presentation by students of the University School of Education, highlighting India's diverse heritage. The official CIKSTI website, developed under the guidance of Prof. Ajay Singh Singhlohi, Professor of Robotics and Automation, was also launched during the occasion.

Distinguished dignitaries including Prof. Shrinivasa Varakhedi (Vice-Chancellor, Central Sanskrit University), Prof. Shashikala Wanjari (Vice-Chancellor, NIEPA), Padmashri Prof. Mahesh Verma (Vice-Chancellor, GGSIPU), and Prof. Saroj Sharma (Dean, University School of Education, GGSIPU) addressed the gathering. They underscored that "knowledge is the supreme goal and innovation is its path."

The event concluded with the release of a book on Indian Knowledge Systems by the dignitaries and a vote of thanks by Dr. Kamal Pathak, Registrar, GGSIPU. The inauguration marked a significant step in the University's journey towards fostering a future-ready and innovation-driven academic ecosystem.
