Debate Competition- Vigilance Awareness Week 2019

This is for the information of all that the Constitutional Club of IPU is organizing a debate competition as part of the Vigilance Awareness Week on 4th November, 2019. Observance of Vigilance Week is a multipronged approach by the Central Vigilance Commission to raise public awareness regarding the existence, cause and gravity of the threat posed by corruption to encourage stakeholders to effectively participate in the fight against corruption. In furtherance of this pursuit, a debate competition on the motion, “ Media has become the most powerful weapon to tackle corruption” is being organized by the Constitutional Club. It will take place on 4th November, 2019 in C-214, at 1:30 pm. The interested students have to participate in a team of 2, where one person speaks for the motion while the other speaks against it. The cap for participating teams is set for 7 teams, and they will be finalized on a first come first serve basis. All the rules and procedures are laid down in the google form and interested students are expected to go through it carefully. There are three prizes in total, which are for Winner team, Runner Ups team, Best Interjector. Certificate of participation shall be provided to all participants. The last date to complete the registration is 2nd November, 2019.
