Subject: Request to provide Delhi Public Library an opportunity to register new members from faculty, non teaching and students

Dear Sir/Madam,

As one of the Organizations of Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India, the Delhi Public Library (DPL) has been catering to educational, informational, cultural and other such needs of the citizens of Delhi, irrespective of caste, creed, religion, gender and age through its 36 library units across the city of Delhi.

The DPL also organizes all types of literary and cultural programmes for children, ladies, gents and aged by inviting resource persons on the themes/subjects decided for the occasion and distribute prizes for the best participation with the objective to promote history, culture, philosophy, literature, fine and useful arts etc. of the country.

From a collection of approximately 20 Lakhs books research scholars, teachers and students could be able to access the resources of DPL directly such as Newspapers Archives from 1952, Online Catalogue, Rare Gramophone Records, unique collection of books on DELHI & Delhi Gazetteers and special services of DPL, including E-resources being made available to the DPL free of cost by the National Library Kolkata. Some other special services of the DPL include: Braille library for the visually impaired, a Prison Library for the inmates of Tihar Jail and provides Mobile Library services to areas without library facilities.

It is, therefore, requested to kindly consider our appeal to provide DPL staff an opportunity to make themselves available in your university premises on any date and time to be decided by you to register new members from the faculty, non-teaching staff and students of your university.

Any person desirous of registering himself/herself as member of the DPL is required to submit a photocopy of Aadhar Card/Voter Identity card and a passport size photograph. Every member is registered in his/her individual capacity and university does not have to bear the cost.

Your initiative and cooperation in this regard will be highly appreciated.
Hoping for a favourable consideration.
With best regards,
