REPORT ON "RENGBUE THE CULTURAL FIESTA" COMPETITION UNDER G-20 ACTIVITIES

Celebrating India's presidency of G20 DSW organized Rengbue 2022-23 which is celebration of India's rich culture in all its forms, hues, and layers.

India's vibrant cultural tapestry is a perfect reflection of the country's unity in diversity' ethos, where different art forms merge seamlessly together like a rainbow, while retaining their unique identity. An amalgamation of seven elements balance, contrast, emphasis, movement, pattern, rhythm and variety India's art forms not only tell a story that is centuries old, but more relevant than ever in modern times.

IUAES WAC 2023 will showcase these artforms, and the artists, who are preserving traditions that reflect their unique social and cultural identities, expressions, ideas and pattern of their daily lives.

Workshop on Madhubani art form, being held from 26th December to 30th December by national awardee artists, who have been practicing Madhubani art since ages in their families.
