

LEGAL AID CENTRE

GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY, DWARKA, DELHI

Dated: 24th September, 2022

Training and Registration as Para Legal Volunteers (PLVs)

Applications are invited from the interested Law students to initiate the process of PLVs (Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme) registration.

National Legal Services Authority's (NALSA) Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme aims at imparting legal training to selected volunteers to ensure Legal Aid reaching all sections of people especially to the poor and the needy through the process of Para-Legal Volunteers.

Judicial officers from DLSA (Delhi State Legal Services Authority) will impart training to qualify the selected students to become PLVs and to perform substantive legal work. This is a wonderful opportunity to the law students to acquire knowledge and gain hands on experience of tasks otherwise exclusively performed by a lawyer.

On completion of the training, a PLV Card shall be issued by the Authority. A trained PLV shall have the opportunity to (i) work in the 'Legal Aid Clinics,' (ii) work in the Front offices of the DLSA/ TLSCs, (iii) to assist in the legal literacy classes, camps and Lok Adalats (iv) to visit Police Stations and ensure that the arrested persons gets legal assistance etc. PLVs are entitled for honorarium for certain specific duties.

For more information on PLV, kindly refer: <https://districts.ecourts.gov.in/plv>

Interested students may fill up the registration form through the below link on or before 30th September, 2022:
