Expression of Interest for Para Legal Volunteer (PLV) Training

Applications are invited from the interested Law students to initiate the process of PLVs (Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme) registration. NALSA (National Legal Services Authority's) Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme aims at imparting legal training to selected volunteers (law students) to ensure Legal Aid reaching all sections of people especially to the underprivileged and the marginalised through the process of Para-Legal Volunteers.

Judicial officers from DLSA (Delhi State Legal Services Authority) will impart training to qualify the selected students to become PLVs and to perform substantive legal work. This is a wonderful opportunity to the law students to acquire knowledge and gain hands on experience of tasks otherwise exclusively performed by a lawyer.

On the successful completion of the training, a PLV card shall be issued by the Authority. A trained PLV shall have the opportunity to:

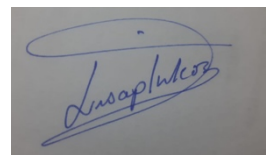

- (i) work in the 'Legal Aid Clinics',
- (ii) work in the Front offices of the DLSA/ TLSCs,
- (iii) to assist in the legal literacy classes, camps and Lok Adalats,
- (iv) to visit Police Stations and ensure that the arrested persons gets legal assistance etc.

PLVs are entitled for honorarium for certain specific duties. For more information on PLV, kindly refer: <https://nalsa.gov.in/acts-rules/preventive-strategic-legal-services-schemes/scheme-for-para-legal-volunteers>
