Sub : Verification of Reserved Category Certificates produced by the candidates, who claimed seats against reserved for SC/ST/OBC categories, during the Academic Session 2017-18

Sir / Madam,

In view of transparency and admissions carried out on proper documents etc to seek admission against the seats reserved for SC/ST/OBC category, it is imperative that genuineness / correctness of all the reserved category certificates on behalf the admissions have been made be obtained and checked and it is ensured that unscrupulous non-SC/ST/OBC persons are prevented from taking admission on the seats reserved for SC/ST/OBC candidates. If any certificate, produced by any admitted student, is proved to be fake and forged, the admission shall liable to be cancelled.

All the affiliated Institutions / Colleges are requested to send a letter, enclosing therewith a copy of category certificate on which the admission has been obtained under respective category by the student, to the respective issuing authority(ies) for ascertaining the correctness / authenticity of the certificates, submitted by the candidates who are admitted against the seats reserved for SC/ST/OBC.

A programme-wise list of candidates, who had taken admission in your college, which includes the candidates who claimed seat in Reserved Category, Admitted through Online Counselling and Physically Reported, has already been sent to you alongwith the enrolment numbers of the candidates. Further, if any candidate who had taken admission, in Management Quota, Spot Counselling and Direct Admission, although not taken the reserved category seat, yet has availed the benefit of percentage, being the reserved category candidates; the certificate submitted by such candidates may also be sent for verification by the colleges themselves.

All the colleges are requested to take immediate necessary action.
