About the University:

The Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University is uniquely situated in being enriched with academic resources in variety of disciplines of study and is a NAAC accredited with 'A' Graded affiliating University established by Government of NCT of Delhi in 1998. Vision of the university is to stimulate both the hearts and minds of scholars, empower them to contribute to the welfare of society at large; train them to adopt themselves to the changing needs of the economy; advocate them for cultural leadership to ensure peace, harmony and prosperity for all. Mission of the university is to provide a market oriented professional education to the student community of India in general and of Delhi in particular, with a view to serving the cause of higher education as well as to meet the needs of the Indian industries by promoting establishment of colleges and Schools of Studies as Centers of Excellence in emerging areas of education with focus on professional education in disciplines of engineering, technology, medicine, education, pharmacy, nursing, law, etc.

About the USL&LS:

The University School of Law and Legal Studies was established in 2001 and was the first University Law School established in the vicinity of the Supreme Court, Delhi High Court, various subordinate courts, commissions, tribunals and various monitoring offices of national and international voluntary organizations. University School of Law and Legal Studies envisages advancement of institutional expertise in the area of legal research and education by augmenting academic and professional excellence, developing critical and relentless engagement with legal theory and practice, synergizing law, legal research, legal education and action to further the quest for justice. Further it aspires to open new vistas in the arena of law, legal studies, theoretical and clinical legal education through an incessant endeavour towards developing academic potential, critical analytical ability, advocacy, counseling and mediation skills so as to fully equip the students with learning which is intellectually stimulating, socially vital and professionally enriching.

About the Programme

The USLLS has organized two Faculty Development Programmes so far, one on “Multi Disciplinary Approaches to Research and Development in India” which was held during 17th February – 8th March 2014 and the other on “Multi Disciplinary Approaches to Research, Development and Innovation” which was held during 18th May – 7th June 2015. Around 40 participants from various schools of studies of the University participated in each of these programme. There were around thirty experts from various fields of studies and research who delivered their lectures in the three week FDP. With the Digital India initiative of the Govt. of India, in order to equip teaching fraternity to cope up with the digital challenges and the emerging issues, USLLS is organising its 3rd Faculty Development Programme on “Multi Disciplinary Approaches to Research & Development in Law & Technology”.

The research and development has indispensable significance in the globally competitive knowledge economy. There is always a need to understand the dimensions of research & development in Law and Technology in the widest contexts and significance, develop systems, processes and institutions for developing a culture of meaningful and credible research in the country in almost every sphere of knowledge. Hence, the said FDP will augment the overall culture of research and scholarship for the academic community.

Targeted Group:

Since the FDP is aimed to focus on the multi disciplinary perspectives of the law and technology, faculty members from various disciplines such as Law, Science, Technology, Management, Social Sciences, Education, etc., are the targeted group.
