Subject: Invitation to attend the Inaugural Function of International Workshop entitled “Operational Mapping/Monitoring of Agricultural Crops in South/Southeast Asian Countries – Research Needs and Priorities”, May 2-4th, New Delhi, India.

University School of Environment Management, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University and South/Southeast Asia Research Initiative (SARI) are jointly organizing a three day International Conference on “Operational Mapping/Monitoring of Agricultural Crops in South/Southeast Asian Countries – Research Needs and Priorities” during May 2-4, 2017. About 40 International/National experts/researchers from USA, France, Philippines, Switzerland, Bangladesh, Nepal, Afghanistan and India are participating in the Workshop.

You are cordially invited to grace the Inaugural Function which will be held in C-Block Auditorium at 1000 hrs on May 2, 2017.

(Prof. J.K. Garg) Coordinator and Local Host

Prof. Anubha Kaushik (Dean)

To: All Deans/Directors GGSIPU