IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS

Subject: Announcement of GEDDES scholarship 2017.

GEDDES scholarship 2017 invites applications from students of planning and architecture at a graduate/ post graduate/ research level from a recognized University or Institution or young practicing professionals. The objective of the scholarship is to promote and advance interest in and understanding of town planning. This scholarship will provide an opportunity to create awareness among young planners and architects. The duration of the scholarship will be 06 months and scholarship amount of Rs. 45,000/- (Forty Five Thousand) will be given.

Last Date – 31st December 2017

Eligibility Criteria –

- Open to applicants of age between 20 to 30 years.
- Applicant must be a student of planning and architecture at a graduate/ post graduate/ research level from a recognized University or Institution or a young practicing professional.
- The applicant can be an individual or can be a collaborative work of a group of individuals.

Terms –

- The duration of scholarship will be 06 months.
- The scholarship of Rs. 45,000/- will be given in two phases, the 1st installment at the commencement of the scholarship and the 2nd installment after the submission of the complete project report.
- 03 months after the commencement of the work, an interim report should be submitted to the coordinator. The report will be circulated to the committee who may after comments to the researcher to consider. The final report submitted will also be reviewed by the committee and any changes required can be incorporated.
- On the successful completion of the study, the applicant may be invited to present the findings in a seminar in Delhi.

For more details please contact Email – kendra@sanskritifoundation.org. and phone number – 011-64675042.

14th Sept 2017

(Dr. Suchitra Kumar)
Joint Registrar(Planning)