From having legs hacked off to getting RS foothold: A Master's journey of grit

PM Nominates RSS Votary Who Lost Both Limbs in '94 CPM Attack

New Delhi: In a move that has shocked the political establishment, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has today nominated a RSS votary who lost both his legs in a 1994 CPM attack on the party's headquarters in Raipur, Chhattisgarh. The PM has appointed the 70-year-old veteran leader, who has been a member of the Rajya Sabha since 2013, to the post of Minister of State for Panchayats. The appointment is seen as a significant gesture of support for the RSS, which has long been a vocal critic of the government's policies on the ground.

The PM's decision is widely expected to be a nod to the RSS, which has been a vocal critic of the government's policies on the ground. The appointment is seen as a significant gesture of support for the RSS, which has long been a vocal critic of the government's policies on the ground.

The screenshot shows a PDF document titled 'BBA-applicants list.pdf'. It contains a large table with multiple columns, likely representing student details such as name, roll number, and contact information. The table is organized into several sections, with a header row and multiple rows of data. The text is small and difficult to read, but the structure is clear.

The screenshot shows a PDF document titled 'BBA-applicants list.pdf'. It contains a table of student information, similar to the one in the first screenshot. Below the table, there is a section with the Jagan Institute of Management Studies logo and name, followed by a signature and a circular stamp. The stamp contains the text 'Jagan Institute of Management Studies' and 'Sector-5, Delhi-85'.
