Subject: Proposal for organizing "TiE Talks" with Shri Ashish Jain, Alumni Entrepreneur - University Alumni Cell

It is submitted that the University Alumni Cell (UAC) proposes to organize the next programme from its "TiE Talks - Alumni Entrepreneurial Talk Series: Bridging Academia, Alumni & Industry" on 29.09.2026. IN AFTERNOON (2.00p.m. onwards)

2. It is proposed to invite Shri Ashish Jain, an alumnus of the University School of Environment Management (USEM), GGSIP University, from its first passing-out batch of M.Sc. (Environment Management). His professional journey—from the initial struggles after completing his postgraduate studies to establishing, over nearly two decades, a successful enterprise engaged in waste management and recycling solutions for domestic and government sectors, with a reported business scale of around ₹100 crore—can provide an inspiring and practical case study for University students.
3. Shri Jain may be invited to share his entrepreneurial journey under the theme:

"From Campus to ₹100-Crore Enterprise: Turning Environmental Challenges into Entrepreneurial Opportunities"

The interaction would particularly focus on early-career challenges; identifying opportunities in waste management, converting environmental problems into sustainable business models, entrepreneurship, scaling an enterprise, working with government/industry, and lessons for young entrepreneurs.

4. The programme may be organized under the aegis of the University Alumni Cell in Offline/Hybrid Mode, followed by an interactive Q&A session with students. Students from USEM and other University Schools, particularly final-year students, innovators and aspiring entrepreneurs, may be encouraged to participate.
5. Necessary arrangements towards venue, memento, light refreshments, photography/videography, banner/standee and other essential logistics may be made from the approved Budget Head of University Alumni Cell, within the already proposed ceiling of ₹20,000/- per TiE Talk, following University rules and approved rates.

Approval of the Competent Authority is, therefore, solicited for organizing the TiE Talk with Shri Ashish Jain on 29.09.2026 under the aegis of the University Alumni Cell and for making the necessary arrangements as above.

Submitted for kind consideration and approval please.
