The Legal Aid Centre, USLLS though the active participation of students regularly conduct door to door free Legal Aid campaigns, community outreach programmes, school outreach programmes, legal help desk etc to help the marginalised and underprivileged sections of the society.

1. LAWYERS VISIT ON EVERY THURSDAY

Every Thursday, a lawyer from DLSA visits the Legal Aid Facilitation Centre, GGSIPU and gives legal advice to the poor people who are in need of legal assistance who visits the centre. In the past 12 months, the centre has assisted more than 600 people who approached the centre. Advocates Upkar Singh, Shitanshu Dhar Pathak, Virender Singh Rathee, Vandana Sharma, R.P Kaushik, Santosh Yadav are a few lawyers who severed the Legal Aid Facilitation Centre from DLSA during the report period. Transgender discrimination, property disputes, cheque cases, senior citizen issues, offences related to women etc are some of the legal issues we have addressed recently.

2. OUTREACH PROGRAMS TO VILLAGE KHERA DABAR IN COLLABORATION WITH NSS

A visit was made on 22.07.2023 at Village Khera Dabar to provide the villagers with legal awareness of their various rights and to learn about their problems and issues. A presentation was made on senior citizen's rights, Will, Transfer, Complaint filing and resolutions etc. Legal Aid Director Prof. Lisa P. Lukose and Former Director Prof. Kanwal D. P. Singh offered solutions to the problems and answered their queries. Many expressed their desire to visit the Legal Aid Centre, GGSIPU. During the visit to the community centre in Khera Dabar, we had the opportunity to listen to people's problems and we could offer support. This experience taught us the importance of community connect programmes and how even small actions can make a big difference.

3. PARTICIPATION OF STUDENTS AT LOK ADALAT

A Lok Adalat was held on 30th July, 2023 d March 19th 20024 an at the Dwarka District Court wherein selected students from the Legal Aid Centre, GGSIPU attended and observed the proceedings. The Lok Adalat system aims to resolve disputes amicably and expeditiously, and observing this Process firsthand allowed the students to understand its nuances. The Delhi State Legal Services Authority Counsel, Advocate Hemant Shukla, accompanied the students and helped them grasp the intricacies of the Lok Adalat procedure. The students got a chance to visit at least 4 courtrooms and interacted with the judges to gain greater insight.

4. CHILD ABUSE AWARENESS WORKSHOP AT SARVODAYA CO-ED SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL

To promote awareness and empower young minds, an enlightening Child Abuse Awareness Workshop was conducted at Sarvodaya Co-ed Senior Secondary School, situated in Possangipur, Janakpuri on 5.08.2023. The workshop was orchestrated by the students of University School of Law and Legal Studies' Legal Aid Cell, with the aim of shedding light on the critical issue of child abuse among students from standard 6th and 8th. The workshop commenced with an introductory session that set the tone for the day's proceedings. The significance of the workshop's theme, emphasizing the collective responsibility of society to recognize, prevent, and address child abuse. The session engaged the students by familiarizing them with the various forms of child abuse, the potential consequences, and the pivotal role that informed individuals play in safeguarding the rights and well-being of children. Central to the workshop's success was its interactive format, which transformed the atmosphere into a dynamic arena of discussion. Facilitated by the Legal Aid Cell members, the students were invited to ask questions and share their perspectives on the subject matter. This interactive exchange fostered an environment where the attendees felt encouraged to participate actively, resulting in a robust dialogue that allowed for a deeper understanding of the topic

11. PLV TRAINING INTERVIEW AT SW-DLSA, DWARKA SEC-10

South-West Delhi Legal Services Authority (SW-DLSA) conducted interviews for PLV students from Guru Gobind Singh University in which 86 students participated. Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme aims at imparting legal training to selected volunteers to ensure Legal Aid reaching all sections of people especially to the poor and the needy through the process of Para-Legal Volunteers. Judicial officers from DLSA (Delhi State Legal Services Authority) will impart training to qualify the selected students to become PLVs and to perform substantive legal work. This is a wonderful opportunity to law students to acquire knowledge and gain hands-on experience in tasks otherwise exclusively performed by a lawyer.

14. PARA LEGAL VOLUNTEERS' TRAINING

The Legal Aid Centre (LAC), University School of Law and Legal Studies (USLLS), Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU) under the auspicious of Delhi State Legal Service Authority (DSLSA) conducted a Para Legal Volunteer (PLV) Training program on 19.04.2024 and 20.04.2024 at GGSIPU Dwarka campus. The PLV programme was meant for those students who were found qualified for the training through the interview conducted by South West DLSA. The DLSA trained 127 students from the University School of Law and Legal Studies, GGSIPU, and Maharaja Surajmal Institute, an affiliated college of IP University. The Judicial Officers comprised of Sh. Naveen Gupta, Special Secretary, DSLSA, Sh. Mridul Gupta, Additional Secretary, DSLSASh. Abhinav Pandey, Secretary (Litigation), DSLSA, Sh. OmpalShokeen, Secretary, South-West DLSA; Sh. Anshul Singhal, Secretary, Shahdara, DLSA, Ms. Helly Fur Kaur, Secretary, Central DLSA; Sh. K B Rai, Former Advisor, Administrative Reforms Department., and Sh. Vikas Chandwani.

The sessions and the demonstrations were very enlightening and there was a feeling of warmth between the trainees. The hands-on experience that the trainees received from the experienced judges are knowledge beyond the information available in library and classroom discussions. We are grateful to Delhi State Legal Services authority for organizing the much-awaited PLV training, sensitizing our students and making them worthy to receive the PLV cards. We are hopeful that the trained students will make really take the justice to the doorsteps of the vulnerable.

15. OUTREACH CAMPAIGN ISSAPUR AND DHANDSA

In association with the NSS unit of the University, Legal Aid Centre partnered and visited Issapur and Dhandsa on 29 March Students interacted with the people and helped them in any possible way. A PPT presentation was also made on POSCO on behalf of Legal Aid Centre.

16. KNOWTHYHAQ – A UNIQUE SOCIAL MEDIA INITIATIVE TO SPREAD LEGAL AWARENESS

One of the major aspects that often gets ignored whenever legal aid is the epicentre of discussion, it is legal literacy amongst the people who are adult enough to be governed by all the common laws that prevail in this nation but still not mature enough to have a well understanding of it. To empower the neizens//students/Genz about their legal rights and laws which colloquially govern them, Legal Aid Centre came up with KnowThyहक, an initiative wherein every Friday, a quiz around legal rights takes place on our official Instagram handle every Friday. 19 weekly quizzes have been successfully completed by the Legal Aid Centre as of now. The Centre receives huge responses from the social media users and we help in such a huge way for legal awareness.
