Film School Inauguration

Venue: EDC Auditorium, East Delhi Campus | Date: 24 September 2025 | Time: 11:00 AM onwards

Introduction

Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University inaugurated its Film School at the East Delhi Campus on 24 September 2025. The ceremony, held at the EDC Auditorium from 11:00 AM onwards, marked an important step towards creating greater opportunities for students to explore cinema, storytelling and the creative industries.

Event Description

Titled "Shubharambh of Film School", the inaugural programme brought together acclaimed personalities from the film and music industries, along with the cast and team of the upcoming film Tu Meri Poori Kahani. The distinguished guests included veteran filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt and music composer Anu Malik, along with director Suhrita Das and cast members Arhaan Pateel, Hirranya Ojha and Abhishek Duhan.

The guests addressed the gathering and shared perspectives on filmmaking, storytelling, music and the many creative possibilities within the entertainment industry. The interaction offered students an opportunity to gain insights from experienced professionals and connect classroom learning with real-world creative practice.

Significance of the Occasion

The inauguration represents a meaningful addition to the academic and creative environment at the East Delhi Campus. By bringing industry professionals and students together, the event highlighted the importance of practical exposure, artistic expression and interdisciplinary learning in film and media education.

Conclusion

The Film School inauguration was a memorable occasion for the university community. The presence of renowned guests, the exchange of ideas and the introduction of a dedicated platform for film education made the ceremony a significant beginning for aspiring filmmakers and creative minds at Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University.

Veteran filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt addressing the audience during the Film School inauguration.

Music composer Anu Malik during the inaugural programme at the EDC Auditorium.

The invited guests and members of the film team during the inauguration.