Mulaqaat 3.0 - Freshers' Party (USAR & USDI)

Venue: EDC Auditorium & D-Block Amphitheatre | Date: 03 September 2025

Introduction

Mulaqaat 3.0 - Freshers' Party was jointly organised by the University School of Automation & Robotics (USAR) and the University School of Design & Innovation (USDI) at the East Delhi Campus of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University on 3 September 2025. The event welcomed newly admitted students and provided them with an opportunity to connect with their peers, faculty members and the wider university community.

Objectives

The celebration aimed to welcome freshers and help them begin their university journey with a sense of belonging. Its key objectives were to:

• Provide an engaging platform for newly admitted students to interact and build friendships.

• Showcase the creative and cultural talent of students through performances and activities.

• Encourage confidence, participation and a spirit of unity among students of USAR and USDI.

• Recognise student talent through the Mr. & Miss Freshers titles.

Event Description

Held at the EDC Auditorium and D-Block Amphitheatre, Mulaqaat 3.0 witnessed the enthusiastic participation of more than 1,500 students. The celebration featured a lively series of cultural performances, interactions and activities that created an energetic welcome for the incoming batches. Student clubs, including Saanjh, Adakari and Riwaayat, contributed performances that added variety and excitement to the programme.

A major highlight was the Mr. & Miss Freshers contest. Simardeep Kaur and Aman Javed, both from B.Tech A&R, were awarded the respective titles. The event also featured musical and stage performances, while Darpan and Anvaya supported media coverage. The programme was organised under the guidance of Prof. Arvinder Kaur, Dean, USAR & USDI, with support from the GA Branch and UWD.

The photographs capture the cultural dance performance, activities on the decorated stage, a musical moment shared with the audience, and participants during the freshers' contest.

Conclusion

Mulaqaat 3.0 successfully brought together the students of USAR and USDI for an evening of celebration, creativity and connection. With participation from over 1,500 students, performances by student clubs and the recognition of the Mr. & Miss Freshers, the event created a memorable beginning for the new students. The celebration reflected the spirit of togetherness and marked an enthusiastic start to their campus journey.

Students presenting a coordinated cultural dance performance on the Mulaqaat stage.

Participants gathered on stage during an activity at the freshers' celebration.

A musical performance engaging the audience at the EDC Auditorium.