Srijan Club Orientation 2025

Venue: EDC Auditorium | Date: 14 August 2025

Introduction

The Srijan Club Orientation 2025 was organised at the East Delhi Campus of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University on 14 August 2025 under the aegis of the Directorate of Students' Welfare (DSW). The orientation introduced students to the Srijan Clubs, which provide opportunities to explore creativity and participate in cultural, literary, artistic and social activities alongside academic studies.

Objectives

The orientation aimed to familiarise students with the clubs functioning under Srijan and encourage them to take an active part in campus life. Its key objectives were to:

• Introduce students to the vision, activities and achievements of the various Srijan Clubs.

• Highlight opportunities in cultural, literary, artistic and social domains.

• Encourage creativity, leadership, teamwork and student participation beyond the classroom.

• Motivate students to explore wider campus initiatives, including scientific activities, NCC and NSS.

Event Description

The session brought together student representatives, faculty members and newly admitted students at the EDC Auditorium. Representatives from the various Srijan Clubs introduced their respective domains, shared their vision and discussed the activities and achievements through which students could express their interests and develop new skills.

The orientation was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Rahul Johari, Associate Director, Directorate of Students' Welfare, along with several faculty members. They encouraged students to participate in diverse campus initiatives and make meaningful use of the opportunities available at the university.

Presentations and interactions helped freshers understand how the clubs contribute to a lively and inclusive campus environment.

The photographs from the event capture the club representatives and faculty members on stage, the enthusiastic student audience, and students presenting the clubs' work. Together, these moments reflect the participation and collaborative spirit of the orientation.

Conclusion

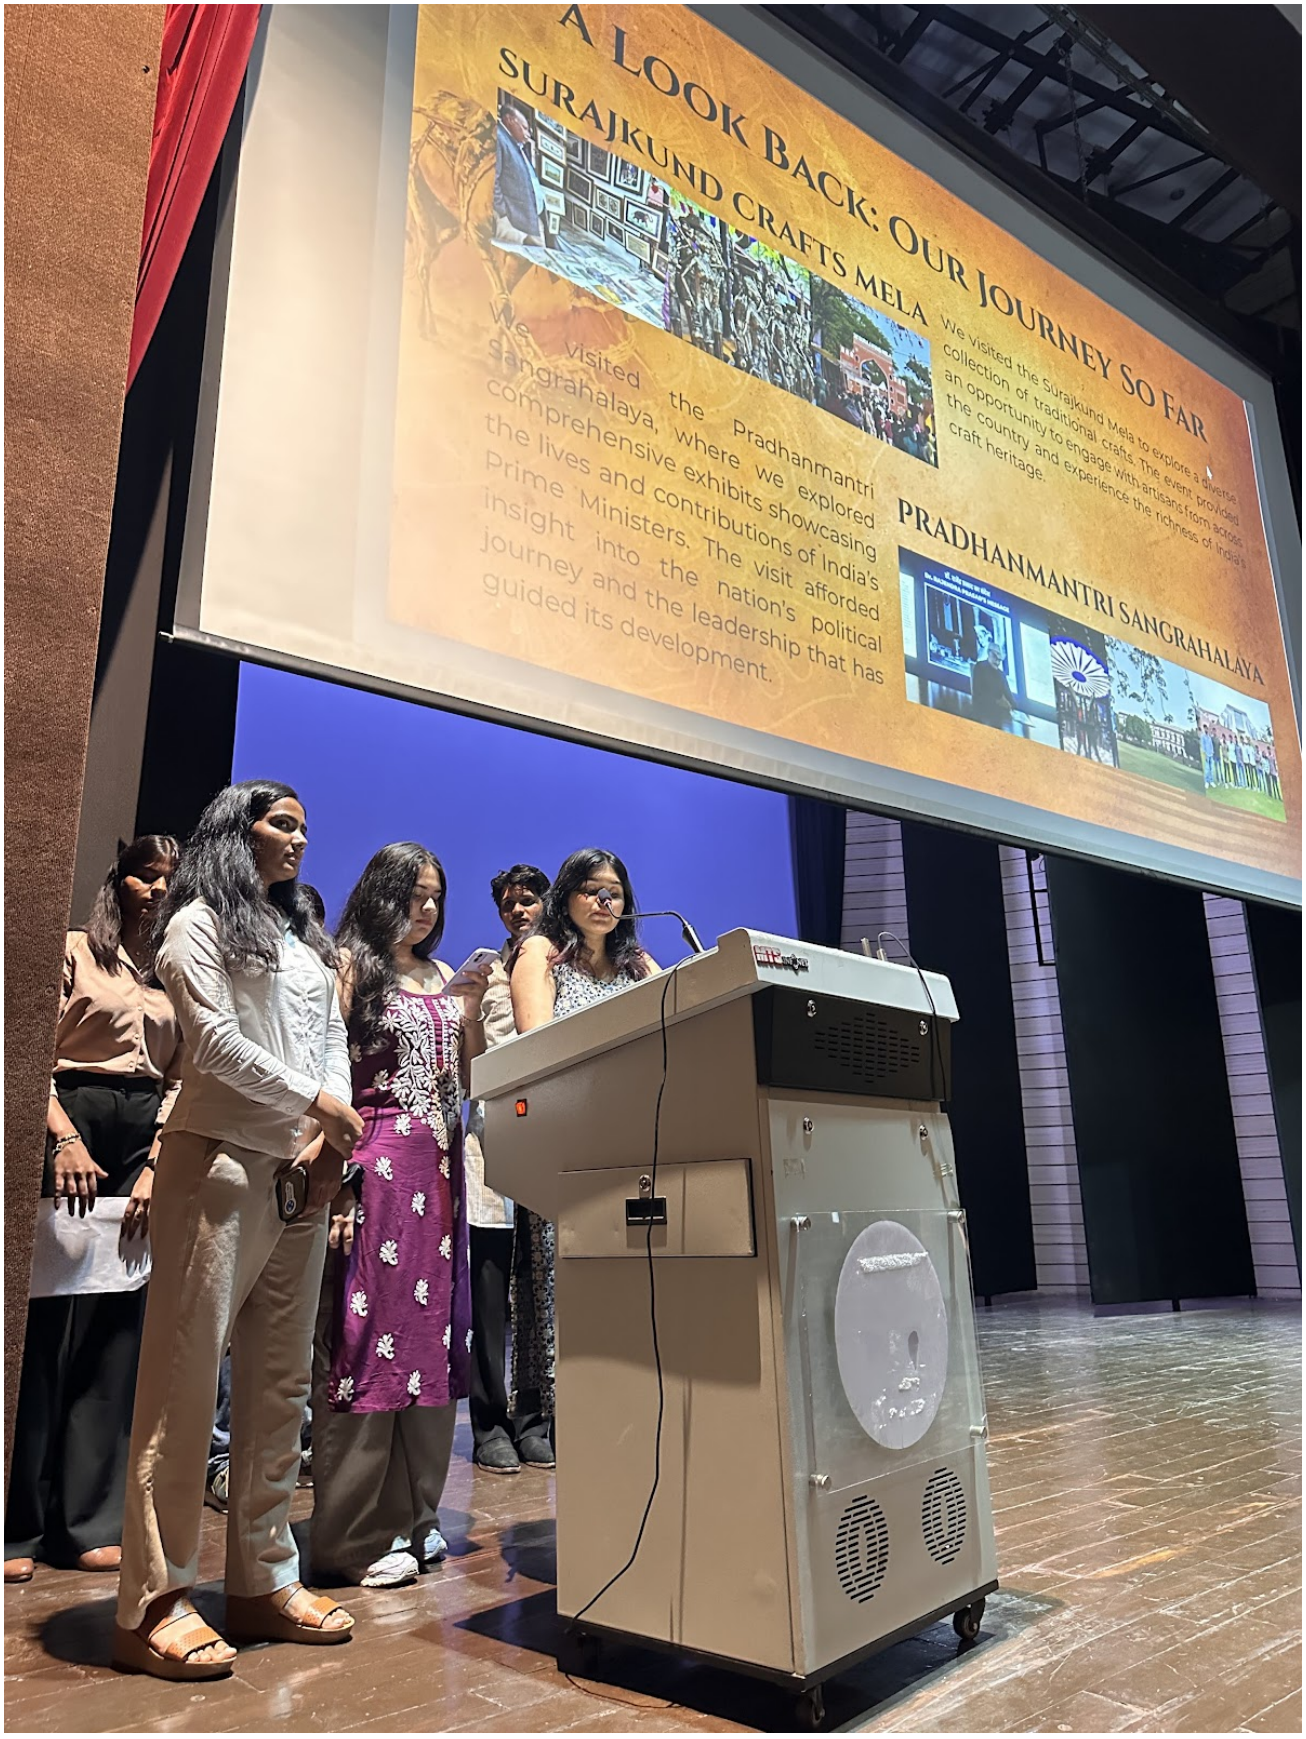

The Srijan Club Orientation 2025 provided an engaging introduction to the cultural, creative and social opportunities available at the East Delhi Campus. By presenting the clubs, their activities and their achievements, the session encouraged students to look beyond academics, discover their interests and become active members of the university community. The event reinforced the role of student clubs in fostering creativity, leadership, collaboration and holistic development.

Club representatives and faculty members during the orientation.

Students gathered in the EDC Auditorium for the Srijan Club Orientation.

Student representatives presenting club activities and the journey so far.